

Become an Ambassador for Your Baltimore City Neighborhood in 3 Easy Steps.

Neighborhood Ambassadors are cheerleaders for their community! They are available to answer questions about why they LOVE city life.

Step 1

Sign In

Create a profile at LiveBaltimore.com.

Sign Up

Select My Profile in the top, right corner on the homepage, then follow the prompts to either Sign In to a profile you've already created, or Sign Up to create a profile.

Step 2

Neighborhood Ambassador Info

Update your information.

Once you are logged in, select Update Your Information to be taken to your account profile settings page. From the tabs at the top, select Neighborhood Ambassador Info, upload a picture, fill in your information, and save.

Step 3

Wait to be approved by a Live Baltimore staff member.

Check your profile in about a week to see if you've been approved. If there is an issue, you can resolve it right away and resubmit. Finally, check out your new Neighborhood Ambassador profile under the Meet Your Neighbors section of your neighborhood page!

Prospective residents can now contact you through our secure online form to find out more about your neighborhood!

Note: Your email is not shared publicly.

Thank you for helping new neighbors call Baltimore City home!
